You pick your own hearing date. You should contact the court where you will file to confirm which days of the week they hear criminal motions, at what time, and in which department.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

HOW TO SCHEDULE YOUR HEARING

- 1) You must select a date for your hearing that falls on a day of the week where the court hears motions. For example, if you are expunging a misdemeanor conviction at the Metro Justice Building in Bakersfield, their motion schedule is Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at 8:30 AM in Division L/M. If you try to schedule for a Monday or Friday at that location, you will be unsuccessful.
- 2) You must select a date that is at least 15 calendar days after you serve then file your documents. Plan ahead - you need to pick a date a minimum of 15 days past the date where the District Attorney and Probation department get their copies of your documents, and you file your original documents with the appropriate criminal division.
- 3) You must select a date where you are certain you will be able to attend the hearing. If you schedule a hearing and do not attend, your petition will not be considered.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense ( felony, misdemeanor, or infraction ):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) ( yes or no )	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) ( yes or no )

The information about the conviction(s) you want cleared goes in this grid. That includes the date of the conviction, the code section, the type of offense, and whether you want the offense reduced before it is dismissed.

When you find your case info, it will be displayed like in the image below:

Charges/Dispositions
Count	Type	Code	Section	Charge Description	Charge Disposition	Disposition Date
001	M	PC	148	 NOT AVAILABLE 	PLED GUILTY	02/23/04

If there is more than one count, you want to pick out the counts that indicate a conviction (Things like “Pled Guilty” or “Pled Nolo Contendere”). You may disregard any that say “Dism.” (Short for “dismissed”). The end goal of this process is to change the disposition to a dismissal, so there is no need to include counts that were already dismissed.

Charges/Dispositions
Count	Type	Code	Section	Charge Description	Charge Disposition	Disposition Date
001	M	PC	148	 NOT AVAILABLE 	PLED GUILTY	02/23/04

Start by finding the disposition date

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

This is where the Disposition Date goes

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense ( felony, misdemeanor, or infraction ):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) ( yes or no )	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) ( yes or no )

Charges/Dispositions
Count	Type	Code	Section	Charge Description	Charge Disposition	Disposition Date
001	M	PC	148	 NOT AVAILABLE 	PLED GUILTY	02/23/04

Next, find the Code. Here, the Code is the Penal Code, or PC for short. Yours may not say PC. That is OK - this is just an example.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Take the Code for your offense and put it in the box under Code.

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense ( felony, misdemeanor, or infraction ):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) ( yes or no )	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) ( yes or no )

Charges/Dispositions
Count	Type	Code	Section	Charge Description	Charge Disposition	Disposition Date
001	M	PC	148	 NOT AVAILABLE 	PLED GUILTY	02/23/04

Next, find the Section, directly to the right of the Code.

Charges/Dispositions
Count	Type	Code	Section	Charge Description	Charge Disposition	Disposition Date
001	M	PC	148	 NOT AVAILABLE 	PLED GUILTY	02/23/04

Next, find the Type. The options here are F for felony, M for misdemeanor, or I for infraction. You may expunge an infraction, but the two categories that hinder employment opportunities are generally felonies and misdemeanors.

Write in the type of offense for which you were convicted - even if you are asking the court to reduce it to a lesser offense.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Take the Type of Offense and put it in the box titled Type of Offense.

You can write F for Felony, or M for Misdemeanor.

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense (felony, misdemeanor, or infraction):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) (yes or no)	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) (yes or no)

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Frequently Asked Question: What if my case has felony convictions and misdemeanor convictions?

Petitions for Dismissal for a felony conviction may not be heard in a courtroom in which only misdemeanor motions are heard. If you have both felony and misdemeanor convictions, be sure to file your Petition with the Felony department. If the Felony court is already considering your Petition to Dismiss a felony count, they can also consider a misdemeanor count from the same case.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense ( felony, misdemeanor, or infraction ):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) ( yes or no )	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) ( yes or no )

The final two boxes on the grid ask for you to answer a question with specialized knowledge you probably will not have on hand.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense ( felony, misdemeanor, or infraction ):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) ( yes or no )	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) ( yes or no )

Penal Code § 17(b) allows someone to request that a crime that can be charged as either a felony or a misdemeanor be reduced from a felony to a misdemeanor. This kind of offense is called a “Wobbler.”

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

1. On (date): _____, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Penal Code § 17(d)(2) allows someone to request that a crime that can be charged as either a misdemeanor or infraction be reduced to an infraction. This kind of offense is called a “Wobblette.”

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Hundreds of criminal offenses in California are “Wobblers” and “Wobblettes.” If you mark “Yes” under these boxes, and your offense is one that was eligible to be charged as a misdemeanor rather than a felony, or as an infraction rather than a misdemeanor, the court may first reduce your type of offense and then grant the dismissal.

An easy way to determine whether your offense is a Wobbler or Wobblette is to take the code section that you have filled in on the grid and Google whether it is a Wobbler/Wobblette, or not.

You may also Google the code section and read the text of the law as it is posted on <https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/>, where it is usually displayed in its most current form.

Worst case scenario: if you write yes, the court may not reduce your offense from a felony to a misdemeanor, or from a misdemeanor to an infraction. Ultimately, your goal is to have the conviction dismissed, anyway.

Charges/Dispositions
Count	Type	Code	Section	Charge Description	Charge Disposition	Disposition Date

As you can see, most of the information you will need to complete your form will be available on the Kern County Superior Court case lookup feature we went over earlier.

1. On (date): 2/23/2004, the petitioner (the defendant in the above-entitled criminal action) was convicted of a violation of the following offenses or was granted deferred entry of judgment for the following offenses:

Code	Section	Type of offense (felony, misdemeanor, or infraction):	Eligible for reduction to misdemeanor under Penal Code, § 17(b) (yes or no)	Eligible for reduction to infraction under Penal Code, § 17(d)(2) (yes or no)
PC	148	Misdemeanor	No	Yes

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

If you have more than one count you are trying to clear from your record, you can fill up to 5 lines on your CR-180, and use an MC-025 - Attachment to Judicial Council Form if you need to add more.

As long as the counts have the same disposition date, you can put them on the same Petition. Remember, if all the counts are misdemeanors, you will file with the Misdemeanor department. If any count is a felony, you should file with the Felony department.

Now you have to select which item in numbers 2-7 best matches your case.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Most of you completing a Petition for Dismissal will use box 2, which is depicted below.

2.  Felony or misdemeanor with probation granted (Pen. Code, § 1203.4)

Probation was granted on the terms and conditions stated in the docket of the above-entitled court; the petitioner is not serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or under charge of commission of any crime, and the petitioner (check all that apply)

- a.  has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period thereof.
- b.  has been discharged from probation prior to the termination of the period thereof.
- c.  should be granted relief in the interests of justice. (Please note: You may explain why granting a dismissal would be in the interests of justice. You can provide that information by writing in the space below, or by attaching a letter or other relevant documents. If you need more space for your writing, you can use the Attached Declaration (form MC-031) and attach it to this petition.)

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

When you check a box on a form, you are making that statement to the court. If you check the box next to number two, you are saying that probation was granted in your case.

2.  Felony or misdemeanor with probation granted (Pen. Code, § 1203.4)

Probation was granted on the terms and conditions stated in the docket of the above-entitled court; the petitioner is not serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or under charge of commission of any crime, and the petitioner (check all that apply)

- a.  has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period thereof.
- b.  has been discharged from probation prior to the termination of the period thereof.
- c.  should be granted relief in the interests of justice. (Please note: You may explain why granting a dismissal would be in the interests of justice. You can provide that information by writing in the space below, or by attaching a letter or other relevant documents. If you need more space for your writing, you can use the Attached Declaration (form MC-031) and attach it to this petition.)

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Checking boxes next to a., b., or c. is like continuing the statement to the court. If you check the box next to a., it would be like saying to the court “Felony or misdemeanor probation was granted, and I fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period thereof.”

2.  Felony or misdemeanor with probation granted (Pen. Code, § 1203.4)

Probation was granted on the terms and conditions stated in the docket of the above-entitled court; the petitioner is not serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or under charge of commission of any crime, and the petitioner (check all that apply)

- a.  has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period thereof.
- b.  has been discharged from probation prior to the termination of the period thereof.
- c.  should be granted relief in the interests of justice. (Please note: You may explain why granting a dismissal would be in the interests of justice. You can provide that information by writing in the space below, or by attaching a letter or other relevant documents. If you need more space for your writing, you can use the Attached Declaration (form MC-031) and attach it to this petition.)

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

If you had your probation terminated ahead of schedule, you can tell the court that by checking box b. You may also check box c., if you also want to tell the court you think a dismissal of your conviction is in the interests of justice.

2.  Felony or misdemeanor with probation granted (Pen. Code, § 1203.4)

Probation was granted on the terms and conditions stated in the docket of the above-entitled court; the petitioner is not serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or under charge of commission of any crime, and the petitioner (check all that apply)

- a.  has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period thereof.
- b.  has been discharged from probation prior to the termination of the period thereof.
- c.  should be granted relief in the interests of justice. (*Please note: You may explain why granting a dismissal would be in the interests of justice. # CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Boxes 3-7 are less common, but may be more applicable to your case.

Very generally:

3. Box 3 is appropriate if you were not granted probation but feel you can make a compelling case you have lived an exemplary life since your judgment was pronounced
4. Box 4 is appropriate if your conviction resulted from your having been a victim of human trafficking.
- 5 & 6. Boxes 5 or 6 may be appropriate under special circumstances in which felony matters have (or could have) resulted in county jail terms, rather than prison. Read the descriptions carefully.
7. Box 7 is appropriate in cases where entry of judgment was deferred in your matter.

CR-180 Petition for Dismissal

Paragraphs 8 and 9 are your requests to the court.

You do not have to fill anything out for either.

Below that, you will date your document and fill in your contact information. You are the Petitioner, so sign right above where it says
“Signature of Petitioner or Attorney”

After that, you are done with the CR-180.

CR-181 Order for Dismissal

Most of this form gets filled out by the court after your hearing.

Even though you do not fill in a lot of information, a copy of this form also gets served alongside the CR-180 on the DA and Probation Department before you file your original with the court.

CR-180 & CR-181

You have completed your Petition for Dismissal and Order for Dismissal. It is a good idea to review them for completeness.

Now you will make photocopies of your original paperwork to serve on the District Attorney and Probation Department.

After they have been served, you will file your original paperwork with the court.
